

It's a cool brisk morning on race day and you've settled into that familiar rhythm as you glide along rural roads at the base of the Welsh Mountain. The smell of springtime is in the air as you pass soft rolling farms, bright green pastures with cows and a horse drawn plow tilling a field. Amish children barrel down their farm lane to keep up with you on their scooters. In the distance a horse and buggy faintly appears on the road. The countryside is amazing and you're realizing this is an experience you will never forget!

See you on April 6!

6TH ANNUAL Kids Marathon Sponsor

The Eastern Lancaster County Library, formerly known as New Holland Library, was established in 1933 by the New Holland Business and Professional Women's Club. The library is a place where you can relax with a book or newspaper, enjoy a story time with your children, study, use a public access computer or your own laptop or attend an educational program. Patrons may check out books, audiobooks, museum passes, DVDs, board games and music CDs. Online resources include free eBook and audiobook borrowing and free online homework help.

Through the Kids Marathon, the ELANCO Public Library is helping kids increase their daily activity, build their self-esteem by working towards a goal and improving the overall health and wellness of families by offering a positive activity they can do together.
